FEAR OF RIOTING MAY CAUSE FORBIDDING OF BIG FUNERAL FOR REDS KILLED BY BOMB

Anarchists Plan Big Demonstration in Union Square.

Police Hunt for Sole Holder of Secret of Tragedy Fails.

Papers Found in Wrecked House Fail to Tell Anarchists' Plans.

Fear that there will be rioting in Union Square next Saturday afternoon if the their plans for a big parade and speechmaking at the funeral of the three reds who were killed in the mysterious bomb explosion at 1626 Lexington avenue, may cause the city authorities to forbid the demonstration.

Commissioner Woods after a conference with Assistant District Attorney Deuel yesterday said that he would not take any action until a permit for the affair was asked for, which must be done at least six hours before the "parade," the route of which must be specified.

Alexander Berkman, who is making arother hand, that a permit was not necessary, as the "parade" would be simply a funeral procession, and intimated that none would be asked for. The stop at Union Square for open air services over the remains could be made without permission too, he said, since the square is set apart in the original grant of the tract to the city as a place for just such gatherings of the people.

One thing that may interfere with the arrangements of the anarchisits, upon which they had not counted, is the power of the Board of Health to order the interment of the bodies not later than 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Under the law bodies must be buried within ninety-six hours after death. The only way to six hours after death. The only way to secape that provision is to apply to the Health Board for an extension of time. No such request has been made yet and No such request has been made yet and Commissioner Goldwater said he didn't.

Wide Plot Not Shown.

Evidence of a general plot on the part of anarchists to use explosives or to do assot of violence is still lacking, despite the ferrer Association offices. Both coffins and catafalque will be decorated with red flags draped in black.

Pawnshop Theft of Diamonds Led to Failures and Federal Investigations.

A diamond smuggling plot which may nvolve more than $1,000,000 after the Federal authorities here and the Canadian authorities in Montreal have finished ir joint investigation is described in indictment handed down yesterday by he Federal Grand Jury against Herman J. Dietz, a bankrupt diamond broker of 87 Nassau street, and his son, Charles Dietz. How many more may be involved in the alleged plot remains for further sessions of the Grand Jury to disclose.

As remote as the connection may seem, the alleged scheme to buy diamonds in Europe and ship them into this country by way of Montreal might have gone undiscovered if it had not been for the rob-bery of a pownshop run by Martin Simons & Son at 94 Hester street. The robbery was the puff of wind that blew down an elaborate house of cards constructed of promissory notes, causing several failures and a number of indictments for bankruptcy fraud.
Herman Dietz, according to his own story told at the bankruptcy proceedings against him before Bankruptcy Commis-sioner Gilchrist, pawned in the Simons shop many of the diamonds brought from Canada. Deprived of the diamonds through the robbery, he was unable to meet the notes with which he had bought

SAYS GIFFORD'S NERVE IS GONE.

Sheriff Takes Precautions Because of His Changed Demeanor.

ALBANY, July 6.—Malcolm Gifford, Jr., is under constant guard at the Albany county fall, Sheriff Peaseley announced to-night. This precaution is taken because of the changed demeanor of the prisoner. The Sheriff says he has lost his nerve and is cheerful only after visits from his relatives. A nail file which young Gifford had in his possession was taken from him to-day. The Sheriff said he thought it best to search Gifford and finding the file took it from him as a matter of precaution.

"He acts as though he was thinking hard," said the Sheriff, "and is very serious, which contrasts with the air of confidence he displayed until the close of his trial."

District Attorney Alexander declared to-day that he would try Gifford again in the fall. He believes that the vote of seven of the jurymen for conviction of second degree murder at the first trial leaves no other course open to him.
